

ELIZABETH

Elegance wears denim

DESIGNER MARCO LASCIALFARI

A true queen recognized above all, by her casual look. The design encircles the denim, the regal

British-style lines put on jeans in order to be part of any environment with the authority of the Old English and the lightness of modernity. Only one name is needed to define the regal stature of this design: Elizabeth. White lacquered wood downplays the prominence of the quilted motif of the padding. Elizabeth is a sofa adaptable to any surroundings, from a classic studio to an open space with glass and bricks in view. Martin Eden also wanted to offer its clients, for this element of haute design, the opportunity to personalize the object with a choice of denim upholstery colors for the padded overlay. At its heart, London is the only city in the world that knows how to be traditional, while breaking the rules, classical while informal. Thus, chosen for the best furniture of Made in Italy interior design, is the crisp, authoritative irreverence of Made in UK.
